

ANTI-DOPING ORGANIZATION OF HONG KONG, CHINA

Anti-Doping Education Talks for Secondary Schools

Aims / Objectives

1. To invite secondary schools to participate in the captioned talks.

Details

2. Anti-Doping Organization of Hong Kong, China (ADOHK) is mandated to oversee doping control measures and foster fair play in sports across Hong Kong. Education constitutes a core responsibility of ADOHK, which upholds the belief that cultivating proper sports ethics in young people at the earliest stage is a pivotal strategy to promote fair competition. Since 2015, ADOHK has delivered Education Talks, an initiative that has garnered widespread acclaim.

3. With support from the Education Bureau, ADOHK will continue organizing Education Talks for secondary schools during the 2025/26 school year. The talks aim to enable students to:

- a. understand sportsmanship and importance of fair play;
- b. apply sportsmanship to daily lives; and
- c. comprehend the nature of doping and its consequences.

4. Interested schools are requested to complete the application form (Appendix I) and return it via fax to 2890 3677 or email to antidoping@antidoping.hk. The talks will be conducted free of charge in either Cantonese or English. Upon receipt of the application form, ADOHK will contact the teacher-in-charge directly regarding the arrangements. Further details are available on ADOHK's website:
